WALKING FOR BREAD - QUIZ - with a delicious prize! 'A loaf of bread', the walrus said is what we chiefly need. 'Pepper and vinegar besides are very good indeed'. Lewis Carroll

Name
Phone number

1	Where did the great fire of London break out and what date?
2	What might the Shoe Warrior (statue) say about bread?
3	How long has Sugar Loaf pub been producing bread?
4	Where was Admiral Arthur Philly born and when?
5	What famous chef has a restaurant in memory of Bread street?
6	Whose statue is outside St Paul's whose name rhymes with a type of bread roll?
7	What pub name in Fleet Street might go down well with a slice of bread?
8	Fleet Street is said to be the inspiration for which tradition at a wedding?
9	Edgar Wallace Pub - what link did EW's father have to do with food?
	Near Embankment station - outside cafe with delicious Italian coffee and Loos.
	Next questions in Embankment gardens
10	Why would Lady Henry Somerset not have visited any of the previous pubs?
11	Why might it be a BIG problem in this area if you did not pay at the cafe?

12	What was Robert Raikes famous for and how did he help hungry children?
Next	questions in St James Park
13	When was the present landscape of St James Park laid out?
14	What provides food, shelter and nest sites for some of Britain's rarest and most threatened species of wildfowl?
15	What creatures should we NOT feed in St James' Park and why?
Next	t question top of Green Park
16	The Wildlife Trust inscription indicates they do what to help the future survival of the planet?
Next	t questions at far end of Hyde park, Speake	rs' Corner and beyond
17	You might like an ice cream art Speaker's corner cafe. Where does it come from?
18	Where can you listen to the voices of Speakers Corner and download activities
19	The fountain in the road at Portman Square indicates water is important for life. What is the quote and where is it from?
20	Think of a ditty to describe the walk on the theme of bread/food

Due to ever tightening Covid restrictions, there will be no refreshments, but plenty of cafes exis near the end of the walk, serving food/drink on pavement etc.