

THE KENNINGTON - BETHLEHEM LINK

2022 Overview of Projects. In addition, we held 7 committee meetings

March: Our online book reading group met. We helped facilitate the BPFTN online AGM

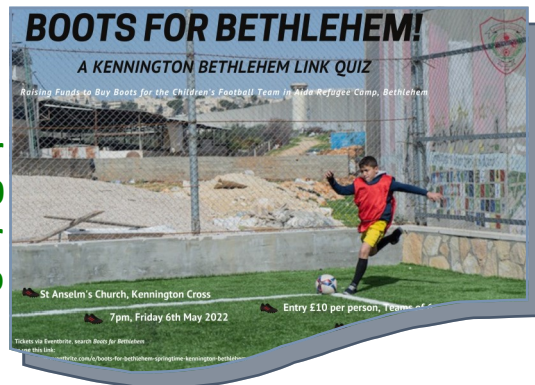

We produced a card

April: With the £777 raised at our Bake Sale we purchased 125 saplings for our Trees for Palestine project

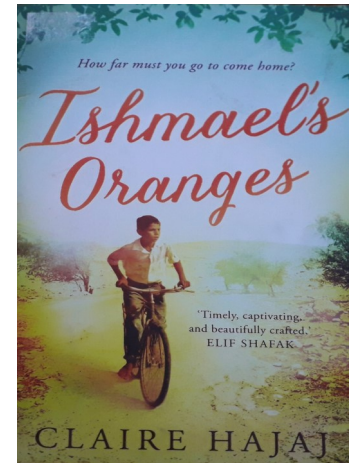

May: Quiz Night, Boots for Bethlehem raised £700 towards football boots for Aida Refugee Camp

June: Zaytoun stall at Parish Fete, Lambeth Palace

October: In-person book reading, Durning Library brought two new supporters on board

THE KENNINGTON - BETHLEHEM LINK

Invite you to a screening of the acclaimed film, Fadia's Tree followed by discussion with producer Susan Simnett

17 November 2022 at 7.00pm

While millions of birds migrate freely in the skies above, a dynamic Palestinian refugee stranded in Lebanon yearns for the ancestral homeland. A story of friendship spanning fifteen years, reflecting on exile and the hope of return.

Donations taken on the night towards costs

Where: The Cinema Museum, 2 Dugard Way (off Renfrew Road), London SE11 4TH (Nearest tube Kennington) Booking via Eventbrite: <https://tinyurl.com/23t5f>

kenningtonbethlehem.org.uk

November: Film night and discussion with the producer, at Cinema Museum with + 70 people joining us

December : AGM and launch of Boots in Bethlehem Exhibition

kenningtonbethlehem.org.uk and Facebook